2. It appears that in 1999 the respondent no. 2 conducted interviews for the recruitment to the post of junior operator. The petitioner claims that he was included in the select list prepared by the Chief Engineer. However, the appointments could not be made as MARC has imposed a ban on recruitment. The ban imposed by MARC is still in operation. It seems that the vacancies of the post of Chief Operator have been filled up by appointing the employees who are already in the service. In the circumstances, no relief can be granted to the petitioner.
